

SAP Business One for Bearing Manufacturing and Distribution

Companies Drive your business like never before with SAP Business One

Client : India Based Client

Vertical : Bearing Manufacturing and Distribution

1. Pain Areas

- Controls in place providing stock management
- Complex manufacturing process
- Time spent creating and sending quotations
- Lack of integration between financials and CRM information was preventive in decision-making process

2. Why SAP B1

- Implement SAP B1 to provide an organization with powerful finance and accounting processing and a platform to meet company growth.
- Improved inventory management and reporting with SAP B1 allows the company to keep better track of inventory inward and outward
- An integrated financials and customer relationship management system provides more instant access to key customer data and more responsive customer service
- Scalability meets with growth expectations

3. Key Challenges

- To gain a real time view of operations in organization
- Complex Production and job work process
- Reduce labor requirements and opportunities for human error

4. Proposed Solution

- SAP Business One ERP Software
- Implementation Partner
- Silver Touch Technologies Ltd.

5. Implementation Highlights

- Systematic approach
- Entire manufacturing process on SAP B1 which was on papers earlier
- Implementation of standard workflow

6. Benefits

- Improved reporting and finance capability saves amount of time
- SAP Business One Platform can be trimmed to meet any new business lines
- Faster and quicker order fulfillment due to a reduction in other tasks and minimization of order failures